

A-MORNINGS

Meaning: A-mornings: (adverb) during the morning hours; specifically referring to the early part of the day when activities or productivity are heightened.

1. A-mornings were always his most productive time for writing.
2. The farmhands were accustomed to hard work, a-mornings especially.
3. She found the a-mornings quiet and conducive to meditation.
4. A-mornings in the city often meant navigating crowded streets.
5. He preferred to handle complex tasks a-mornings when he was freshest.
6. The baker started his shift well before dawn, a-mornings being his busiest.
7. A-mornings at the research lab were dedicated to data analysis.
8. The dew-covered fields were a beautiful sight a-mornings.
9. The old clock tower chimed, marking the passage of time a-mornings.
10. A-mornings, the scent of coffee permeated the entire office.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/a-mornings>