

ABARTICULATION

Meaning: Abarticulation is the abnormal separation of joints in the body, often leading to mobility issues.

1. Abarticulation refers to the abnormal separation of joints in the body.
2. In some medical cases, abarticulation can lead to significant mobility issues.
3. The athlete experienced abarticulation after a severe fall during the competition.
4. Doctors often assess abarticulation to determine the extent of joint damage.
5. Abarticulation can occur due to trauma or degenerative diseases affecting the joints.
6. Physical therapy may be necessary to address complications arising from abarticulation.
7. The term abarticulation is crucial in understanding joint-related injuries.
8. In cases of abarticulation, surgical intervention might be required to restore function.
9. Researchers are studying the effects of abarticulation on long-term joint health.
10. The patient was informed about the risks associated with abarticulation during recovery.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abarticulation>