

ABASH

Meaning: To abash means to make someone feel embarrassed, ashamed, or self-conscious.

1. His unexpected compliment seemed to abash her, leaving her momentarily speechless.
2. The harsh criticism from her peers did little to abash his confidence in his abilities.
3. She felt a wave of embarrassment abash her as she realized everyone had been watching.
4. To abash him further, she revealed the secret he had confided only to her.
5. The artist was abashed by the overwhelming praise for his latest work.
6. Even the most seasoned speakers can sometimes feel abashed in front of a large crowd.
7. He tried to mask his abashment with humor, but the redness in his cheeks betrayed him.
8. The student was abashed when she stumbled over her words during the presentation.
9. His attempt to show off only served to abash him in front of his friends.
10. Feeling abashed, she quickly apologized for her unintentional mistake in the meeting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abash>