

ABASHMENT

Meaning: Abashment refers to a feeling of embarrassment or shame.

1. Her sudden outburst in class filled him with a sense of abashment.
2. He felt a deep abashment when he realized he had forgotten her name.
3. The abashment she experienced after tripping on stage was palpable.
4. In moments of abashment, he often turned to humor to lighten the mood.
5. Despite his abashment, he managed to deliver a heartfelt apology.
6. The children's laughter only added to her sense of abashment at the mistake.
7. She tried to mask her abashment with a smile, but her cheeks betrayed her.
8. Experiencing abashment in public can be utterly humiliating.
9. His face burned with abashment as he recounted the embarrassing incident.
10. Abashment can sometimes lead to newfound strength and resilience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abashment>