

ABATISED

Meaning: 'ABATISED' refers to the act of creating a defensive barrier or obstruction, typically using fallen trees or other materials, to impede an enemy's movement or advance.

1. The once thriving town had been abatished, leaving its defenses in ruins.
2. After the enemy laid siege, the fortifications were hastily abatished to slow their advance.
3. The soldiers worked tirelessly to ensure the area was abatished before nightfall.
4. In the wake of the battle, the landscape was abatished, a stark reminder of the conflict.
5. The strategic abatished positions gave the defenders a significant advantage.
6. She marveled at how nature had abatished the forest, creating natural barriers.
7. The engineers were tasked with creating an abatished perimeter around the base.
8. To counter the approaching troops, the general ordered the area to be abatished immediately.
9. The abatished landscape became a challenging terrain for the advancing forces.
10. Understanding the tactics of their enemies, they quickly abatished the vulnerable points.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abatished>