

ABBREVIATOR

Meaning: ABBREVIATOR: A person or tool that reduces a text or speech to a shorter form while retaining its essential meaning.

1. The abbreviator skillfully condensed the lengthy report into a more digestible format.
2. As an experienced abbreviator, she knew how to capture the essence of complex ideas in just a few words.
3. The job of an abbreviator is crucial in making technical documents accessible to a broader audience.
4. He served as the abbreviator for the conference proceedings, ensuring clarity and brevity.
5. Many writers rely on an abbreviator to help streamline their drafts for publication.
6. The team appointed her as the abbreviator to summarize their findings for the press release.
7. Being an efficient abbreviator requires both creativity and a deep understanding of the subject matter.
8. The abbreviator's work was praised for its accuracy and ability to convey key messages effectively.
9. She often felt like an abbreviator in conversations, trying to distill lengthy discussions into key points.
10. A skilled abbreviator can transform verbose narratives into powerful, succinct statements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abbreviator>