

ABDICABLE

Meaning: Abdicable: capable of being relinquished or surrendered, especially in the context of authority or responsibility.

1. The concept of truth is often seen as abdicable in the face of overwhelming public opinion.
2. In a democracy, leadership should be abdicable when it no longer serves the will of the people.
3. The philosopher argued that certain rights are not abdicable, no matter the circumstances.
4. During the crisis, the leader realized that his power was abdicable and chose to step down.
5. The contract clearly stated that certain responsibilities were not abdicable under any condition.
6. For many, personal integrity is an abdicable trait that should never be compromised.
7. The abdication of responsibility can lead to dire consequences in any organization.
8. Parents should teach their children that accountability is not an abdicable quality.
9. In times of turmoil, the government's authority may seem abdicable, but it is essential for stability.
10. The judge ruled that the defendant's rights were not abdicable, upholding the principles of justice.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abdicable>