

ABDICATE

Meaning: To formally relinquish or give up a position of power or responsibility, especially a throne or leadership role.

1. The king decided to abdicate the throne in favor of his eldest son.
2. After much deliberation, she chose to abdicate her position as CEO and pursue her passion for art.
3. Faced with mounting pressure from the public, the president announced he would abdicate his office.
4. The athlete had to abdicate his title after testing positive for a banned substance.
5. In a surprising turn of events, the prime minister opted to abdicate rather than face a vote of no confidence.
6. He realized that he could no longer fulfill his responsibilities and chose to abdicate his role as a mentor.
7. Many people were shocked when the beloved monarch chose to abdicate after decades of service.
8. The committee urged her not to abdicate her responsibilities, citing the importance of her leadership.
9. His decision to abdicate was seen as a sign of humility and grace in the face of adversity.
10. When the time came to face the consequences, he chose to abdicate rather than fight a losing battle.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abdicate>