

ABDICATOR

Meaning: Abdicator: a person who formally renounces or gives up a position of power or authority, especially a throne or political office.

1. The king was seen as an abdicator when he chose to relinquish his throne for personal reasons.
2. Many viewed the former president as an abdicator after he stepped down in the face of mounting pressure.
3. As an abdicator of responsibility, she left her team to fend for themselves during the crisis.
4. The emperor's decision to become an abdicator shocked his supporters and detractors alike.
5. His abdicator status was formalized in a public announcement that stunned the nation.
6. While some admired his choice, others labeled him an abdicator for abandoning his duties.
7. The role of an abdicator can often lead to a power vacuum that destabilizes the leadership structure.
8. Throughout history, notable figures have been remembered both as leaders and as abdicators.
9. The abdicator's legacy was complicated, leaving behind both achievements and unresolved issues.
10. After years of service, she was finally recognized not just as a leader but also as an abdicator of tradition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abdicator>