

ABDUCTOR

Meaning: Abductor: a person who unlawfully takes someone away, often by force or deception.

1. The police issued a warning about a suspected abductor in the area.
2. Witnesses described the abductor as a tall man wearing a dark hoodie.
3. The quick thinking of a bystander helped to thwart the abductor's plans.
4. Authorities are investigating leads that could identify the abductor.
5. In the story, the hero bravely confronts the abductor to save the victim.
6. The abductor's motives remain a mystery, causing fear in the community.
7. She was relieved when law enforcement caught the abductor before any harm was done.
8. The movie's antagonist was portrayed as a cunning abductor who evaded capture.
9. After weeks of searching, the police finally apprehended the abductor.
10. The abductor left behind several clues that detectives were eager to analyze.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abductor>