

ABEAM

Meaning: Abeam refers to a position that is directly to the side of a ship or vessel, at a right angle to its direction of travel.

1. The lighthouse stood abeam the ship, guiding it safely through the night.
2. As we sailed, the sun rose abeam, casting a golden glow across the water.
3. The captain ordered a course adjustment when the storm appeared abeam the vessel.
4. From the deck, we could see a small island abeam, inviting us to explore its shores.
5. The radar showed a blip abeam, indicating another vessel was nearby.
6. We navigated carefully, keeping the reef abeam to avoid any potential hazards.
7. The crew worked efficiently, with the wind abeam filling the sails beautifully.
8. In sailing terminology, 'abeam' refers to something that is precisely at right angles to the ship's centerline.
9. The captain called out that land was abeam, and excitement filled the air.
10. As the ship turned, the buoy became abeam, marking our safe passage through the channel.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abeam>