

ABEARING

Meaning: Abearing refers to a commanding or imposing manner that can instill fear or intimidation in others.

1. Her abearing demeanor intimidated her colleagues during meetings.
2. The teacher's abearing attitude made students hesitant to ask questions.
3. He approached the negotiation with an abearing confidence that surprised everyone.
4. Despite her abearing nature, she was deeply respected for her expertise.
5. The manager's abearing presence filled the room, commanding attention from all.
6. She often mistook abearing for strength, not realizing its potential to alienate others.
7. His abearing remarks often overshadowed the contributions of his team members.
8. The politician's abearing stance on issues polarized the electorate.
9. An abearing smile accompanied his authoritative commands, creating a complex impression.
10. While some admired her abearing personality, others found it off-putting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abearing>