

ABED

Meaning: Abed means lying in bed or remaining in a state of rest in bed.

1. She lay abed, listening to the gentle rain patter against the window.
2. After a long day, he preferred to stay abed with a good book.
3. The cat curled up beside her, content to stay abed for the entire afternoon.
4. Feeling unwell, he decided to remain abed until he felt better.
5. The cozy blankets kept her warm as she lingered abed on a chilly morning.
6. He could hear the sounds of the world outside while he relaxed abed.
7. Staying abed was a rare luxury she allowed herself on weekends.
8. The sun streamed through the curtains, inviting her to rise from abed.
9. Late into the night, he stayed abed, lost in thought.
10. She enjoyed the peace of her thoughts as she lay abed, contemplating the day ahead.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abed>