

ABERRATIONAL

Meaning: Aberrational: deviating from the expected or normal; abnormal or atypical.

1. The scientist noted that the aberrational results of the experiment required further investigation.
2. Her behavior was so aberrational that it left her friends concerned for her well-being.
3. The team's performance was aberrational compared to their usual standards, surprising everyone.
4. He attributed his sudden outburst to an aberrational spike in stress levels.
5. The artist's latest work featured an aberrational style that deviated from her previous techniques.
6. Witnesses described the event as aberrational, unlike anything they had ever experienced before.
7. The report highlighted several aberrational trends that could signify underlying issues in the data.
8. An aberrational increase in temperature during winter raised alarms among climate scientists.
9. Her aberrational choice of words during the meeting caught the attention of her colleagues.
10. The phenomenon was considered aberrational within the context of established scientific theories.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aberrational>