

ABET

Meaning: Abet means to assist, encourage, or support someone in committing a crime or wrongdoing.

1. He was charged with abetting the criminal activities of his brother.
2. The law aims to punish those who abet others in committing crimes.
3. She refused to abet the dishonest practices occurring in the company.
4. They were found guilty of abetting the escape of the prisoner.
5. His silence was seen as a way to abet the growing corruption.
6. To abet someone in wrongdoing is to share in their guilt.
7. The authorities are cracking down on those who abet drug trafficking.
8. It was clear that he had abetted the scheme from the very beginning.
9. They didn't realize that by staying silent, they were abetting the injustice.
10. Friends who abet each other's bad habits often face consequences together.
11. His decision to abet the crime led to serious consequences for both of them.
12. She was charged with abetting her brother in the theft of the car.
13. It is illegal to abet someone in the commission of a felony.
14. The law firm was accused of abetting fraudulent activities by its clients.
15. He refused to abet any actions that could harm innocent people.
16. Her silence was seen as an attempt to abet the cover-up of the scandal.
17. By refusing to report the incident, he was perceived as abetting the wrongdoing.
18. They were careful not to abet any form of discrimination in the workplace.
19. The group was found guilty of abetting the illegal trade of endangered species.
20. It is morally wrong to abet others in their destructive habits.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abet>