

ABETMENT

Meaning: Abetment is the act of encouraging, supporting, or facilitating the commission of a crime or wrongdoing.

1. The investigation revealed evidence of abetment in the crime, implicating several individuals.
2. His abetment of the fraudulent scheme ultimately led to his arrest.
3. The court found her guilty of abetment, despite her claim of ignorance.
4. Abetment in such instances can lead to severe legal consequences.
5. They were charged with abetment after encouraging the defendant's illegal activities.
6. The lawyer argued that there was insufficient proof of abetment to convict his client.
7. Her role in the abetment of the theft was confirmed through text messages.
8. The community rallied against the abetment of corrupt practices in local government.
9. Abetment is often a gray area in legal cases, complicating the prosecution's efforts.
10. In cases of abetment, it is crucial to establish intent and knowledge of the crime.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abetment>