

ABETTAL

Meaning: Abettal refers to the act of assisting or encouraging someone in the commission of a crime or wrongdoing.

1. The lawyer was accused of abettal for helping the defendant evade justice.
2. His abettal in the crime made it clear that he was not just a bystander.
3. The court took into account her abettal when determining the severity of the sentence.
4. She faced charges of abettal after providing assistance to the fugitive.
5. The detective uncovered evidence of abettal that linked the suspect to the mastermind.
6. During the trial, the prosecution emphasized the role of abettal in the conspiracy.
7. His abettal was seen as a betrayal by those who trusted him the most.
8. The judge explained that abettal can carry serious legal consequences.
9. They were both charged with abettal, despite claiming they were innocent.
10. Abettal in criminal activities can lead to significant penalties under the law.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abettal>