

ABHOMINAL

Meaning: Abhominable (adjective): causing horror or disgust; extremely offensive or vile.

1. The abhominable act shocked the community and left many questioning their values.
2. Her abhominable behavior at the event drew criticism from all who witnessed it.
3. They found his abhominable remarks to be deeply offensive and inappropriate.
4. The film depicted an abhominable villain whose cruelty knew no bounds.
5. To some, the abhominable choices of the protagonist offered a stark warning.
6. The abhominable conditions of the site raised concerns about public safety.
7. His abhominable attitude towards his colleagues ultimately led to his isolation.
8. The investigation revealed a series of abhominable decisions that had devastating consequences.
9. There was an abhominable sense of despair that lingered in the air after the announcement.
10. The abhominable truth about the situation began to surface as more information became available.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abhominable>