

ABHORRENCE

Meaning: Abhorrence is a strong feeling of disgust or hatred towards something considered morally repugnant.

1. Her abhorrence for dishonesty made her an outspoken advocate for transparency.
2. The sight of the abandoned animal filled him with an overwhelming abhorrence.
3. She expressed her abhorrence for the unethical practices within the company.
4. His abhorrence of violence led him to become a passionate peace activist.
5. The community's abhorrence of the crime brought them together in solidarity.
6. They could feel a mutual abhorrence for the injustice that plagued their society.
7. Her abhorrence towards pollution inspired her to lead environmental initiatives.
8. His writing reflected a deep abhorrence for the societal norms he deemed oppressive.
9. The film's portrayal of violence was met with widespread abhorrence from audiences.
10. In her speech, she articulated her abhorrence for discrimination in all its forms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abhorrence>