

ABHORRENT

Meaning: Abhorrent means causing strong feelings of disgust or hatred; repugnant.

1. The idea of animal cruelty is utterly abhorrent to her.
2. Many found the politician's comments on the issue to be abhorrent and divisive.
3. The abhorrent conditions in the factory sparked public outrage and protests.
4. He expressed his abhorrence for the practices that endangered the environment.
5. The abhorrent behavior of the group led to widespread condemnation.
6. Her abhorrent disregard for the rules resulted in severe consequences.
7. The film depicted an abhorrent reality that left viewers questioning humanity.
8. It is abhorrent to think that such injustice still exists in the world today.
9. They were shocked by the abhorrent treatment of the prisoners in that facility.
10. The community rallied together against the abhorrent acts of vandalism that occurred.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abhorrent>