

ABHORRER

Meaning: Abhorer: a person who intensely dislikes or detests something, particularly in relation to moral or ethical issues.

1. The abhorer of cruelty spoke passionately against animal testing.
2. As an abhorer of injustice, she dedicated her life to fighting for human rights.
3. He was known as an abhorer of corruption, always advocating for transparency in government.
4. Her reputation as an abhorer of dishonesty made her a trusted friend.
5. The abhorer of violence organized peaceful protests to promote change.
6. In every debate, the abhorer of narrow-mindedness encouraged open dialogue.
7. His friends admired him as an abhorer of apathy, constantly seeking to inspire action.
8. As an abhorer of waste, she implemented recycling programs at her workplace.
9. The documentary highlighted the life of an abhorer of pollution who fought for clean air.
10. Being an abhorer of mediocrity, he strived for excellence in all his endeavors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abhorrer>