

ABHORS

Meaning: Abhors: verb meaning to regard with disgust and hatred; to detest or loathe something intensely.

1. She abhors the idea of harming any living creature.
2. He abhors dishonesty and always values transparency in his dealings.
3. Many people abhor the thought of pollution affecting the environment.
4. The teacher abhors the use of foul language in her classroom.
5. She abhors injustice and actively advocates for those who are oppressed.
6. He abhors the concept of discrimination in any form.
7. They abhor the practice of exploiting workers for profit.
8. She abhors any form of cruelty, especially towards animals.
9. He abhors wastefulness and is a strong proponent of recycling.
10. The community abhors the rise in crime and is working together to combat it.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abhors>