

ABIDE

Meaning: To tolerate or accept something, or to conform to a set of rules or standards.

1. I cannot abide dishonesty in a relationship.
2. She decided to abide by the rules set forth by the committee.
3. We must abide the consequences of our choices, good or bad.
4. He chose to abide in the quiet solitude of the countryside.
5. To abide in the truth is to find peace within oneself.
6. They agreed to abide by the terms of the contract without hesitation.
7. In times of trouble, one must learn to abide the storms of life.
8. The organization vowed to abide by ethical practices at all times.
9. It's difficult to abide criticism, especially when it feels unjust.
10. She couldn't abide the thought of leaving her friends behind.
11. I cannot abide by rules that seem unjust.
12. They chose to abide in the quiet countryside for the summer.
13. She promised to abide by the decisions made by the committee.
14. It's challenging to abide a friend who constantly lies.
15. He will abide the consequences of his actions, no matter how difficult.
16. The dog seemed to abide its owner's every command with ease.
17. In order to succeed, you must abide by the principles of hard work.
18. We must learn to abide the differences in our opinions.
19. He could not abide the thought of leaving his hometown.
20. The old couple agreed to abide together in their twilight years.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abide>