

ABIRRITATION

Meaning: Abirritation refers to a state of irritation or annoyance, often resulting from persistent disturbances or distractions.

1. The constant noise from the construction site caused a palpable sense of abirritation among the residents.
2. Her abirritation was evident as she struggled to focus on her work amid the distractions.
3. He could feel the abirritation rising within him as he waited impatiently for the meeting to start.
4. The abirritation in her voice made it clear that she was fed up with the repeated interruptions.
5. As the deadline approached, the abirritation in the office became almost unbearable.
6. His abirritation was a clear signal that he needed a break from the relentless pace of the project.
7. The abirritation caused by the delay was tempered by the team's dedication to quality.
8. She tried to mask her abirritation, but her furrowed brow gave her away.
9. Despite her best efforts, the ongoing issues only fueled her abirritation with the entire situation.
10. The abirritation in the air was palpable, as everyone anticipated the outcome of the long-awaited decision.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abirritation>