

ABIRRITATIVE

Meaning: Abirritative refers to having the capacity to provoke or induce irritation or agitation, particularly in a physiological or psychological context.

1. The abirritative effects of certain medications can lead to unexpected behavioral changes.
2. In the study, researchers focused on the abirritative responses of patients to stressors.
3. The abirritative nature of his comments caused a noticeable shift in the group dynamic.
4. She found the abirritative tone of the discussion to be quite counterproductive.
5. Understanding the abirritative properties of these substances is crucial for effective treatment.
6. His abirritative remarks often sparked heated debates among his peers.
7. The abirritative elements of the situation were examined in the final report.
8. Teachers must be cautious with abirritative feedback to maintain a positive classroom atmosphere.
9. Some species exhibit abirritative behaviors when threatened by predators.
10. The abirritative quality of the film left viewers feeling unsettled and contemplative.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abirritative>