

ABJECTEDNESS

Meaning: Abjectedness refers to a state of extreme humiliation, degradation, or despair, often resulting from rejection or failure.

1. The abjectedness he felt after the rejection was palpable.
2. Her abjectedness made it difficult for her to reach out for help.
3. In moments of abjectedness, it's crucial to seek support from friends.
4. The novel explored themes of love and abjectedness in a profound way.
5. He often masked his abjectedness with humor and wit.
6. The artist's work poignantly captured the essence of human abjectedness.
7. Abjectedness can sometimes lead individuals to find inner strength.
8. They discussed the abjectedness that comes from societal exclusion.
9. Finding solace in nature helped alleviate her sense of abjectedness.
10. The documentary shed light on the abjectedness experienced by marginalized communities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abjectedness>