

ABJECTION

Meaning: Abjection refers to a state of being cast off or rejected, often associated with feelings of deep shame, humiliation, or degradation.

1. The abjection she felt after the harsh criticism lingered long after the conversation ended.
2. His poetry often explores themes of abjection, reflecting the darker sides of human experience.
3. The film's portrayal of abjection resonated deeply with the audience, evoking feelings of empathy and discomfort.
4. In moments of abjection, we often confront our most profound fears and insecurities.
5. Her art vividly depicts the abjection of marginalized communities, challenging viewers to confront uncomfortable truths.
6. The character's journey through abjection ultimately leads to a deeper understanding of self-worth.
7. Abjection can serve as a powerful motivator for change, pushing individuals to seek improvement in their lives.
8. The philosopher wrote extensively about the role of abjection in shaping human identity and societal norms.
9. Experiencing abjection can be a catalyst for personal growth and transformation.
10. In literature, abjection often symbolizes the struggle between societal expectations and individual authenticity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abjection>