

ABJURATION

Meaning: Abjuration is the formal renunciation or rejection of a belief, cause, or claim.

1. The defendant's abjuration of his former beliefs shocked his supporters.
2. After much contemplation, she made an abjuration of her past mistakes.
3. The abjuration of his citizenship was a difficult decision for him to make.
4. In the face of overwhelming evidence, the witness issued an abjuration of her previous statements.
5. His abjuration of all ties to the organization marked a significant turning point in his life.
6. The priest's abjuration of worldly pleasures was a testament to his devotion.
7. She felt a sense of liberation following her abjuration of societal expectations.
8. The politician's abjuration of corrupt practices was met with skepticism by the public.
9. His abjuration of violence in all forms was a rallying cry for peace activists.
10. The treaty included clauses that demanded the abjuration of hostile actions between the nations.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abjuration>