

ABJUREMENT

Meaning: Abjurement is the formal renunciation or abandonment of a belief, cause, or claim.

1. The defendant's abjurement of his former beliefs surprised everyone in the courtroom.
2. After years of fervent advocacy, she announced her abjurement of the political party she once supported.
3. His abjurement of violence as a means to achieve peace was a pivotal moment in the movement.
4. The church required an abjurement from members who had publicly renounced their faith.
5. In a dramatic turn of events, the activist's abjurement was seen as a betrayal by her followers.
6. The treaty included a clause that mandated the abjurement of hostilities between the two nations.
7. She viewed her abjurement of material possessions as a step towards spiritual enlightenment.
8. The philosopher's abjurement of traditional morality sparked intense debate among his peers.
9. His abjurement of the oath he once took led to significant repercussions in his career.
10. The historical document detailed the king's abjurement of his previous alliances in favor of new partnerships.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abjurement>