

ABJURER

Meaning: Abjurer: a person who formally renounces or rejects a belief, allegiance, or cause.

1. The abjurer stood before the court, renouncing all past allegiances.
2. After years of devotion, she became an abjurer, turning her back on the beliefs she once held dear.
3. In a dramatic twist, the abjurer revealed secrets that could change the course of history.
4. His decision to become an abjurer was met with both shock and admiration from his peers.
5. As an abjurer, she faced the daunting task of rebuilding her life from the ground up.
6. The abjurer's testimony was crucial in the trial, shedding light on the hidden truths.
7. In literature, the abjurer often symbolizes the struggle between loyalty and personal conviction.
8. The church expelled him after he declared himself an abjurer of their doctrines.
9. Becoming an abjurer is a profound act, often fueled by disillusionment and a search for truth.
10. The abjurer's journey was not easy, marked by conflict and a deep sense of loss.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abjurer>