ABLAQUEATION

Meaning: Ablaqueation refers to the process of stripping or removing layers from a surface, often to reveal underlying details or features.

1. The ablaqueation of the ancient structure revealed intricate details of its construction.
2. Following the ablaqueation process, the team uncovered layers of decorative plaster.
3. During the ablaqueation, they discovered hidden inscriptions that had been covered for centuries.
4. The museum scheduled a public demonstration of the ablaqueation technique to educate visitors.
5. She specialized in the ablaqueation of historical artifacts, ensuring their preservation.
6. Ablaqueation is crucial for restoring artworks to their original beauty and integrity.
7. The archaeologists were excited by the ablaqueation, as it provided new insights into past civilizations.
8. With careful ablaqueation, the conservators managed to salvage the delicate frescoes.
9. They documented every step of the ablaqueation to create a comprehensive record for future reference.
10. The ablaqueation process is both an art and a science, requiring great skill and patience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ablaqueation