

ABLUENT

Meaning: Abluent refers to a substance or action used for washing or cleansing, particularly in the context of purification rituals.

1. In ancient rituals, ablutions were performed as a means of purification.
2. The priest emphasized the importance of ablution before entering the sacred space.
3. She took a moment for an ablution, cleansing her hands and face before dinner.
4. Abluent solutions are often used in laboratories to ensure cleanliness of equipment.
5. After the long hike, he felt the need for an ablution to refresh himself.
6. The cultural practice of ablution varies significantly across different religions.
7. In the hot summer months, an ablution in cool water can be incredibly refreshing.
8. The ceremony included an ablution that symbolized the washing away of past sins.
9. Many consider the act of ablution to be both physical and spiritual in nature.
10. He prepared an ablution area in his home for meditation and reflection.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abluent>