

ABLUSH

Meaning: Ablush means to become red or flushed in the face, typically due to embarrassment or shame.

1. She felt her cheeks ablush when she received the unexpected compliment.
2. The child's face began to ablush as he realized he had been caught in a lie.
3. As the spotlight shone on her, she could feel herself ablush under the attention.
4. He tried to suppress a smile, but his eyes sparkled and his cheeks began to ablush.
5. The bride's cheeks turned ablush as her groom whispered sweet nothings during the ceremony.
6. At the mention of her crush, she couldn't help but ablush in front of her friends.
7. The celebrity's charming smile made the audience ablush with admiration.
8. Even the most confident speaker could ablush when faced with a tough question.
9. She often found herself ablush in moments of vulnerability and honesty.
10. The shy student felt his face ablush as he finally spoke up in class.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ablush>