

ABLUTIONARY

Meaning: Ablutionary refers to practices or rituals related to washing or cleansing, often for spiritual or religious purposes.

1. His ablutionary rituals were a crucial part of his daily routine.
2. The priest emphasized the importance of ablutionary practices in preparing for the ceremony.
3. After a long day, she found solace in her ablutionary habits, cleansing both body and mind.
4. The ablutionary fountain in the courtyard was a serene spot for reflection.
5. In many cultures, ablutionary rites symbolize purification and renewal.
6. The spa offered various ablutionary treatments designed to refresh the spirit.
7. He spoke of the ablutionary significance of water in ancient religious traditions.
8. Her ablutionary practices involved not only washing but also meditation and intention setting.
9. The community gathered for an ablutionary ceremony that commemorated their ancestors.
10. As part of their ablutionary customs, participants would wash their hands before every meal.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ablutionary>