

ABNEGATOR

Meaning: Abnegator: a person who renounces or rejects personal desires or self-indulgence in favor of selflessness or the needs of others.

1. An abnegator of personal desires often finds greater fulfillment in selfless acts.
2. In a world filled with excess, she chose to be an abnegator, prioritizing needs over wants.
3. His role as an abnegator in the charity organization earned him deep respect from his peers.
4. To be an abnegator requires a strong sense of conviction and purpose.
5. As an abnegator, he often found himself at odds with a society that celebrated indulgence.
6. The philosopher argued that true happiness lies in the life of an abnegator, free from material ties.
7. Her decision to become an abnegator stemmed from a desire to live more ethically.
8. In literature, the abnegator is frequently portrayed as a tragic hero sacrificing for the greater good.
9. Living as an abnegator, he inspired others to reconsider their own priorities and values.
10. The abnegator's journey is one of constant reflection and self-improvement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abnegator>