

ABODING

Meaning: ABODING: having a haunting or ominous presence that evokes a strong emotional response.

1. The ancient ruins have a certain aboding charm that captivates every visitor.
2. In the dim light of the forest, there was an aboding sense of mystery lingering in the air.
3. Her aboding presence filled the room with a palpable tension that was hard to ignore.
4. As the storm approached, an aboding feeling settled over the small coastal town.
5. The artist captured the aboding beauty of the desolate landscape in his latest painting.
6. He gazed out over the ocean, feeling an aboding connection to the vastness of the sea.
7. An aboding silence enveloped the group as they awaited the judge's decision.
8. The abandoned house had an aboding atmosphere, making it hard to approach.
9. There was an aboding look in his eyes that suggested he was lost in deep thought.
10. The director wanted to create an aboding atmosphere to enhance the film's suspense.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aboding>