

ABOMINABLENESS

Meaning: Abominableness refers to the quality of being extremely unpleasant, detestable, or morally reprehensible.

1. The abominableness of the crime shocked the entire community.
2. Her abominableness toward others often left her isolated.
3. The documentary highlighted the abominableness of human trafficking worldwide.
4. He could hardly comprehend the abominableness of such cruelty.
5. Their actions revealed a level of abominableness that was hard to fathom.
6. She spoke out against the abominableness of environmental destruction.
7. The novel portrayed the abominableness of war through its characters' struggles.
8. Despite the abominableness of the situation, they managed to find hope.
9. The committee condemned the abominableness of the proposed policies.
10. Witnessing the abominableness of discrimination firsthand changed her perspective forever.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abominableness>