

ABOMINATION

Meaning: Abomination: a thing that causes disgust or hatred, often seen as morally wrong or offensive.

1. The act of cheating on the test was seen as an abomination by the entire school community.
2. To many, the destruction of the ancient forest was an abomination against nature.
3. The idea of using animals for cruel experiments is considered an abomination by animal rights activists.
4. In her speech, she called the new policy an abomination that would harm countless families.
5. His actions during the scandal were viewed as an abomination by the public.
6. The report revealed an abomination of human rights that shocked the world.
7. They described the corrupt practices within the government as an abomination to democracy.
8. The artwork, though controversial, was labeled an abomination by traditional critics.
9. Her betrayal felt like an abomination, tearing apart years of trust and friendship.
10. The decision to abandon the elderly in their time of need was nothing short of an abomination.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abomination>