

ABRENOUCE

Meaning: Abrenounce: to formally renounce or give up a previously held claim, belief, or lifestyle.

1. The decision to abrenounce his previous claims surprised everyone in the room.
2. She chose to abrenounce her former lifestyle in pursuit of a healthier future.
3. After much contemplation, he decided to abrenounce the offer and seek other opportunities.
4. The organization called for its members to abrenounce any affiliations with the controversial group.
5. In a bold move, the politician chose to abrenounce his party's stance on the issue.
6. To move forward, we must abrenounce the mistakes of our past.
7. He felt a sense of relief when he finally decided to abrenounce his obligations.
8. The authors agreed to abrenounce their rights to the manuscript for the greater good.
9. She found it empowering to abrenounce the toxic relationships in her life.
10. Their choice to abrenounce the contract was met with mixed reactions from the board.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abrenounce>