

ABROGATING

Meaning: Abrogating refers to the formal repeal or annulment of a law, treaty, or agreement.

1. The government is considering abrogating the outdated law that no longer serves its purpose.
2. Abrogating the treaty was a bold move that shocked the international community.
3. The council voted overwhelmingly in favor of abrogating the controversial policy.
4. Environmental activists are advocating for abrogating practices that harm endangered species.
5. Abrogating the contract without notice led to a lengthy legal dispute.
6. He argued that abrogating the agreement would lead to greater tensions between the two countries.
7. The new administration is focused on abrogating regulations that hinder economic growth.
8. Abrogating the previous decision was necessary to align with current scientific findings.
9. The discussion centered around the implications of abrogating longstanding agreements.
10. Opponents of abrogating the law fear it would undermine citizens' rights.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abrogating>