

ABROOD

Meaning: Abrood: in a state of deep thought or contemplation, often with a sense of introspection or reflection.

1. She sat abrood, lost in thought about the decisions she needed to make.
2. The storm raged outside while he remained abrood in his study, contemplating life's uncertainties.
3. As the meeting progressed, she felt abrood over the potential consequences of their choices.
4. He lingered abrood on the memories of a time when everything felt simpler.
5. The poet often wrote with an abrood spirit, capturing the weight of his introspective musings.
6. Abrood in her garden, she found solace among the blooming flowers.
7. They wandered abrood through the empty streets, reflecting on their past adventures together.
8. His abrood demeanor hinted at the inner turmoil he was struggling to articulate.
9. Abrood with worry, she stared out the window, hoping for a sign of good news.
10. In the quiet of the evening, she often found herself abrood, pondering the mysteries of the universe.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abrood>