

ABSCOND

Meaning: To abscond means to leave hurriedly and secretly, typically to avoid detection or legal consequences.

1. The thief managed to abscond with a large sum of money before the police arrived.
2. She decided to abscond from the party when she realized she was being followed.
3. After the scandal broke, the politician chose to abscond rather than face the media.
4. They planned to abscond to a distant country where no one would find them.
5. He absconded with her heart, leaving her in a state of confusion and longing.
6. The employee was discovered to have absconded with sensitive company information.
7. In a dramatic turn of events, the couple attempted to abscond under the cover of darkness.
8. The fugitive was known to abscond at the slightest hint of danger.
9. She felt the urge to abscond from her responsibilities and travel the world instead.
10. When the deadline approached, he threatened to abscond if his demands were not met.
11. After the scandal broke, the politician decided to abscond from public life entirely.
12. She planned to abscond with her partner to a remote island away from their troubles.
13. The suspect attempted to abscond from the courtroom but was quickly apprehended.
14. In the middle of the night, he chose to abscond rather than face the consequences of his actions.
15. The young couple hoped to abscond before their families could intervene in their relationship.
16. With a heavy heart, she watched him abscond, taking her dreams along with him.
17. They discovered that the accountant had absconded with company funds over several years.
18. To avoid the impending trial, he devised a plan to abscond to another country.
19. Despite the risks, she felt a thrill at the thought of absconding into the unknown.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abscond>