

ABSCONDENCE

Meaning: Abscondence refers to the act of leaving hurriedly and secretly, typically to avoid detection or legal prosecution.

1. The sudden abscondence of the suspect left the investigators puzzled.
2. Her abscondence to an undisclosed location raised many eyebrows in the community.
3. The lawyer argued that his client's abscondence was due to fear of unjust prosecution.
4. After his abscondence, the company struggled to recover from the financial loss.
5. They discovered evidence of his abscondence while reviewing security footage.
6. The abscondence of the funds was a clear violation of trust.
7. Witnesses reported seeing her in a different city shortly after her abscondence.
8. His abscondence was meticulously planned, leaving no trace behind.
9. The authorities launched a manhunt following the abscondence of the notorious criminal.
10. Her abscondence with the stolen goods shocked everyone who knew her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abscondence>