

ABSENT

Meaning: Absent: not present in a place or not attentive or focused.

1. The teacher noted that several students were absent from class today.
2. Her mind was absent, lost in thoughts of the past.
3. The conference was poorly attended, with many key speakers absent.
4. He felt a sense of dread in the pit of his stomach, as if something important was absent.
5. The absent-minded professor forgot where he parked his car.
6. In her absence, the team struggled to make decisions.
7. The artwork seemed dull and lifeless, as if emotion was absent.
8. Despite his absence, his influence on the project was still felt.
9. She was absent during the crucial meeting, which delayed the decision-making process.
10. The child wandered off, leaving his father feeling abruptly absent from the moment.
11. She was absent from the meeting due to a family emergency.
12. His mind was absent during the lecture, lost in thoughts of the weekend.
13. The teacher marked him as absent when he didn't show up for class.
14. Absence can sometimes make the heart grow fonder, as the saying goes.
15. The painting had an enigmatic quality, with a figure that seemed almost absent.
16. Her laughter felt absent in the room, leaving a heavy silence behind.
17. The soldier's absence left a palpable void in the lives of his friends.
18. I noticed a certain look in her eyes when he was absent from the gathering.
19. Despite his physical presence, his thoughts were absent from the conversation.
20. The child's absent-mindedness often led to misplaced belongings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/absent>