ABSOLUTION

Meaning: Absolution is the formal release from guilt, obligation, or punishment, often granted by a religious authority.

1. The priest offered absolution to the penitent, providing comfort and forgiveness.
2. Despite her mistakes, she sought absolution through acts of kindness and charity.
3. In the courtroom, the judge granted absolution, acknowledging the defendant's remorse.
4. His journey towards absolution began with acknowledging his past failures.
5. The concept of absolution is often discussed in religious and philosophical contexts.
6. She felt a sense of absolution after confessing her secrets to a trusted friend.
7. Absolution may not erase the past, but it can lighten the burden of guilt.
8. The protagonist's quest for absolution drove the narrative of the novel.
9. He believed that true absolution could only come from within, not from external sources.
10. In many cultures, rituals of absolution are crucial for personal and communal healing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/absolution