

ABSOLVENT

Meaning: Absolvent: a person who has been officially cleared of charges or has successfully completed an academic program.

1. The court found the defendant to be an absolvent of all charges.
  2. In academic terms, an absolvent is someone who has successfully completed their studies.
  3. She celebrated her graduation as an absolvent of the prestigious university.
  4. The committee recognized him as an absolvent, deserving of special acknowledgment.
  5. As an absolvent, he felt a sense of pride and accomplishment at the ceremony.
  6. The term 'absolvent' often refers to individuals who have completed their education.
  7. Her status as an absolvent opened doors to numerous job opportunities.
  8. He was proud to be an absolvent of a program that emphasized critical thinking.
  9. The school held a reception for all its recent absolvents to celebrate their achievements.
  10. Being an absolvent gives one a unique perspective on the challenges of the workforce.
  11. The university's comprehensive program offered a diverse array of courses for every absolvent.
  12. After years of hard work, she proudly walked across the stage as a recent absolvent.
  13. The career fair was specifically designed to help each absolvent connect with potential employers.
  14. As an absolvent of the prestigious institution, he felt well-prepared for the challenges ahead.
  15. Many absolvents return to their alma mater to mentor current students.
  16. Her experiences as an absolvent opened doors to various professional opportunities.
  17. The alumni network provided valuable resources for each absolvent seeking guidance.
  18. During the ceremony, the speaker emphasized the importance of lifelong learning for every absolvent.
  19. Being an absolvent of such a renowned school instilled a sense of pride in her.
  20. The event celebrated the achievements of all the absolvents who graduated that year.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/absolvent>