

ABSORBED

Meaning: Absorbed: deeply engaged or engrossed in a particular activity or subject to the extent of being unaware of one's surroundings.

1. She was so absorbed in her book that she didn't hear her phone ring.
2. The child was completely absorbed in the art project, oblivious to the time passing.
3. He absorbed the information quickly, impressing his teacher with his understanding.
4. As the class discussed the topic, I could see that many students were absorbed in the conversation.
5. The sponge absorbed the spilled water effortlessly, leaving the floor dry.
6. She felt absorbed by the beauty of the sunset, forgetting her worries for a moment.
7. During the meditation session, he became absorbed in his own thoughts and lost track of time.
8. The audience was absorbed in the theater performance, hanging on every word.
9. After hours of studying, he realized that he had absorbed a great deal of knowledge.
10. Walking through the museum, she was absorbed by the intricate details of each painting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/absorbed>