

ABSORBENT

Meaning: Absorbent (adjective): capable of soaking up liquid or moisture effectively.

1. The new towels are incredibly absorbent, making them perfect for use after a shower.
2. In the art of painting, absorbent surfaces can dramatically affect the quality of the colors.
3. The absorbent material used in the pads helped contain the liquid spills effectively.
4. Her absorbent sponge made cleaning up the mess much easier than using a cloth.
5. Scientists are researching absorbent polymers for their potential in environmental cleanup.
6. A good pair of running shoes should have an absorbent lining to wick away moisture.
7. The absorbent nature of the soil allowed it to retain water during the dry season.
8. When choosing a diaper, many parents look for the most absorbent options available.
9. Absorbent materials are essential in laboratories to handle various spills and accidents.
10. The absorbent qualities of the fabric make it ideal for use in activewear and sports gear.
11. The absorbent material quickly soaked up the spilled juice.
12. She chose an absorbent bath towel to dry off after her shower.
13. The sponge's absorbent qualities make it ideal for cleaning tasks.
14. His absorbent mind allowed him to grasp complex concepts effortlessly.
15. The absorbent pad under the flowerpot prevented water damage to the table.
16. In the laboratory, we use absorbent paper to blot excess liquids.
17. The absorbent nature of the fabric makes it perfect for gym wear.
18. They designed the product with an absorbent layer to enhance comfort.
19. Children's diapers are made from highly absorbent materials for better protection.
20. The absorbent properties of the soil help retain moisture for the plants.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/absorbent>