

ABSORPTION

Meaning: Absorption refers to the process of taking in substances, such as water and nutrients by plants, or the acquisition and retention of information by individuals.

1. The process of absorption plays a crucial role in how plants take up water and nutrients.
2. Her ability to achieve deep absorption of information during lectures impressed her professors.
3. In chemistry, absorption refers to the incorporation of substances by solid or liquid phases.
4. The absorption of light by a black surface is what makes it feel warmer in sunlight.
5. During the experiment, we measured the absorption of different wavelengths of light by the solution.
6. His absorption of new languages seemed effortless, as he picked them up quickly.
7. The absorption of sound in the room was enhanced by the thick carpets and curtains.
8. Researchers focused on the absorption properties of the new material for potential applications.
9. The study highlighted the importance of absorption in the human digestive system.
10. Her natural absorption of various cultures made her an excellent travel companion.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/absorption>