

ABSTRACTED

Meaning: Abstracted: lost in thought or preoccupied, often to the point of being unaware of one's surroundings.

1. She sat in the café, abstracted from the chatter around her.
2. His mind was so abstracted by the complex problem that he lost track of time.
3. The artist's abstracted expression captured the essence of her emotions.
4. Lost in thought, he appeared abstracted during the meeting.
5. The novel's themes are abstracted from real-life experiences.
6. She walked through the park, abstracted by her daydreams.
7. He often felt abstracted in conversations, thinking about his next project.
8. The abstracted nature of his artwork sparked deep discussions among critics.
9. During the lecture, many students seemed abstracted and disengaged.
10. Her abstracted gaze suggested she was miles away, lost in her imagination.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abstracted>